U.S. PUBLIC OPINION ANTI-JAPAN

The New York correspondent of the "Manchester Guardian" says that the China situation is by fare the leading subject of public attention in the United States.

The Americans feel that the Japanese pressure on Great Britain is really intended to affect all members of the white race in East Asia. Public opinion in the United States has hardened enormously against Japan in the past few months.

Widespread enquiries a year ago showed that the majority of Americans were reluctant to impose an embargo on trade with Japan. Similar enquiries, just completed, show that the reverse is now true.

Imperial Airways' New Giant Flying-Boat

LONDON, JUNE 20 (REUTER)-IMPERIAL AIR-WAYS' FLYING-BOAT CONNEMARA, one of the new flying-boats assigned to the North Atlantic air mail route, was destroyed by fire at Hythe yesterday.

The six men on board jumped off. Four of them escaped unhurt and one was injured, but the sixth is missing.

Transocean adds that according to first investigation of the disaster an explosion occurred while the boat was taking fuel. The Connemara was shortly to be used on the trans-Atlantic air service.

Imperial Airways, says a Reuter message from London state that the replacement for the flyingboat for the Atlantic Fleet is already under construction and will be ready for service in the summer. Consequently, the loss of the Connemara is not likely to delay the start of the North Atlantic service.

Putting To Test America's Degree Of Passivity, Say "Figaro"

NEW YORK, JUNE 20 (REUTER)-THE U.S. SECRETARY OF STATE, MR. CORDELL HULL'S STATEMENT THAT THE UNITED STATES IS CONCERNED WITH THE BROADER ASPECTS OF THE DEVELOPMENTS IN TIENTSIN IS DECLARED BY THE "NEW YORK TIMES" TO BE "AS TIMELY AS IT IS DIRECT."

The paper continues that on the initiative of the Japanese themselves an unimportant incident was deliberately made an occasion for a direct challenge to the whole structure of British treaty rights in China.

The paper adds, "As a nation having our own treaties with China we are bound to be concerned with the method and objective of the Japanese attack and with the implications it holds for us."

TRUE SIGNIFICANCE TO AFFAIR

PARIS, June 20 (Reuter). The attitude of the United States in Tientsin affairs is widely discussed in the press some papers declaring that America holds the balance there.

"Figaro" considers that the big service that Japan is rendering the Axis is putting to the test the degree of passivity of the United States in that part of the world where the Americans are directly interested.

MR. A. KORDA AND GOLDWYN DEAL

"Quite impossible" was Alexander Korda's comment on the Hollywood report that Samuel Goldwyn has acquired the holdings of Mary Pickford Douglas Fairbanks and Charles Chaplin, valued at £400,000 each, in the United Artists Corporation.

The constitution of the corporation, Mr. Korda pointed out requires the consent of all the producer-members before shares can be transferred.

Mr. Korda, as one of the 'part. ners, would have to be consulted: and even then, so complicated are the corporation's articles, many weeks would elapse before such a deal could be completed. Mr. Korda added that so far as

banks and Mr. Chaplin, though disposed to sell some two years ago, had no desire to do so now. Mr. Korda suggested that Mr. Goldwyn might have acquired the United Artists Studios and that this might have given rise the other report.

NEW FILM AT THE CATHAY

The "News of the Day" filin, which is distributed by M-G-M in China, is due to arrive in the Colony by Clipper to-day at 2.30 D.M.

The film will be screened at the Cathay Theatre from 5 p.m. onwards with performances every half hour until-11 p.m.

There will further exhibitions of this film to-morrow (Thursday) from 2.30 p.m. to 11 p.m.

RITZ HUMOUR

Add the Ritz Brothers to your list of superstitious stars. One of their new scenes for "The Gorilla" called for them to fall down a flight of stairs, and they were willing enough until Alm Ritz discovered there were 13 steps. "Nothing doing!" they chorusedand held up production for halfan-hour while carpenters structed a false landing lopped off the bottom step.

... And here's the laugh: In the first take Harry misjudged his tumble, strained his wrist and scraped his knee. Asked if he was hurt. "Not much." he said after a check-up "But if there's been 13 steps there, I'da broken my neck sure!"

The Far Eastern aituation in the light of latest events was disclissed by Mr. Joseph Clark Grew. Ambassador to Japan now visiting Washington and State Secretary Cordell Hull, Assistant State Secretary Sumner Welles and other State Department officials.

MICKEY ROONEY DIRECTOR

Mickey Rooney will become the youngest director in motion pictures when production starts on "Babes in Arms," in which he appears with Judy Garland.

Mickey, whose secret ambition is to direct, will be granted the privilege by Busby Berkeley, who notified the young star that he had been named co-director of the minstrel show sequences los the picture in which all the performers will be children.

Berkeley told Mickey of hi appointment long enough in advance so he could start thinking up novel angles for the show. Rooney went to work immediately and sat in on auditions for young talent.

Mickey an opportunity to run the world. gamut of his own entertainment talents. Not only will he play the Goldwyn-Mayer picture.

Menu -Poisoned Glass

Thirteen extras and stunt men received first aid treatment for stomach aches during the filming of a saloon brawl sequence for "Dodge City" at Warner Bros.

As part of the action several stunt men were hurled through the windows of the saloon. Ordinarily breaksway" or easily-shattered windows for such brawls are made of rock candy. But Warner Bros. technicians had developed a new type of "breakaway" glass, Resin was its principal ingre-

Soon after the first scene had been photographed by Director Mike Curtiz several of the stunt men and extras complained of stomach aches Questioning at the studio hospital disclosed the cause o their ailment.

They had eaten the resinous glass, thinking it was rock candy as usual.

About eight years ago, Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer dressed him in a monkey suit for a bit in one of the Tarzan pictures and Mr. Miles, after weighing all the pros and cons, decided that being s monkey was not such a bad business as the wise-crackers would have you believe.

ATLANTIC AIR MAIL STAMPS

YANKEE CLIPPER ISSUE

A special 30 cent stamp has been prepared by the United States Post Office. Department for the mail carried on the first flight of the regular transatiantic air mail service.

Blue in colour, it conforms in size and design to the 8 cent domestic air mail-stamp of 1934; which shows a winged globe inscribed "U.S. Air Mail," except that the new 30 cent denomina. tion has the further inscription "Trans-Atlantic."

It represents the normal "rate for letters carried by the Yankee Clipper from New York to Horta, Lisbon, or Marseilles. "

Remarkable Record There is a remarkable record of the transatlantic flights in the stamps issued in connexion with the pioneer efforts of Hawker, Alcock and Brown, the airship R. 34, De Pinedo, Connor and Boyd, the Dornier flying boat Do-X, and General Balbo's formation flight.

Several of these philatelic souvenirs have risen to high figures in the collectors' market, quite apart from their great historical interest. The solo flight from New York to Paris accomplished by Colonel Lindbergh 12 years ago. was also the occasion of a commemorative stamp issue by the United States on his home-coming.

A record of the principal transatlantic flights and the routes followed by them may be found in the design of a $1 air mail stamp issued by Newfoundland in 1931.

CABMAN HITS BACK

Of the regular customers who tip just so much a favourite story of the London cabranks is of "A certain ramous Foreign Secretary. His fare was a shilling, and he wanted to give the driver a threepenny tip. He handed him oneand-sixpence and asked for threepence change. The driver (genuinely) had no change. Neither had the Foreign Secretary.

BAD CUSTOMERS

At San Remo, Italy, recently some 1,500 German tourists arrived. They were gloomily received by the town's hotellers and tradespeople. The reason for this was that the tourists had been allowed to take out of Germany only a strictly limited number of marks apiece, and spent most of their time gaping at things they could not afford to buy.

Previously, such unprofitable customers from the other end of the Rome-Berlin axis were more than made up for by British and American tourists, many of whom have now, however, banned Axis countries from their lists."

Walled a prominent businessman recently: "Most of the better hotels are empty. The people who used to spend money and really helped to make business good do not come here any more. What we need is the British and American's to come back. We never before realised what good clients they were."

ROTARY CLUB: SPIRITED PLEA. FOR TOWN PLANNING IN HONGKONG: REV. J. R. HIGGS' ADDRESS

A spirited plea for Town Planning in Hongkong, to make this a City Beautiful—the most beautiful city in every way in the Far East," was made by the Rev. J. R. Rev. Mr. Higgs put forward ten main points for the aesthetic improvement of the Colony, including tree-planting as opposed to tree-felling, a far closer supervision of the erection of advertising signs, the provision of parks and open spaces for the mass of the people, the building of a Kowloon Promenade and the improvement of street names.

Fire On Ship In Harbour LITTLE DAMAGE DONE

Crew's Prompt Work Ouells Flames

A fire on board the Norwegian freighter Utsire, lying in the harbour at West Point yesterday, which might easily have had serious results, was quelled with comparatively little damage done following a prompt and courageous half-hour battle by the ship's crew.

The Utsire of 4,441 tons, arrived from Calcutta on Sunday and began unloading a cargo of over 6,000 tons of coal for the Hongkong Gas Company. So Ming. Lam Sum and Tsui Tin. who pleaded guilty when the case was first heard on Monday were sentenced to four years hard labour on each count, while Wong Shu-ki, Wong Tam-kwai, Leung Wan and Ng On were sentenced to 18 months' hard labour, all sentences to run concurrently.

His Lordship pointed out that they were armed, and if they did not wish to take part in robbery. they could, after being reinforced by Cheung Foon and the other boatmen, have turned against those who were alleged to have forced them into doing what they did not want to do.

It was bad luck that their boat had been stolen, said His Lordship but that did not entitle them to go and rob others.

After the jury had returned a verdict of guilty, Mr. Whyatt said that, although there Was no criminal record against the men, he was informed that since their arrest there had been no piracies, previously quite frequent, in the Foretold 500 Years Ago Prophecy, or the revelation through supernatural inspiration of events to come, has always been a subject with a universal appeal. The possibility that one through the perusal of some ancient text may gain a concrete knowledge of what may be expected to hap-

PROPHETIC BOOKS:

The Chinese, even more perhaps than the ancient Hebrew people, take interest in the prediction of future events, and, therefore, prophecies of any description have always received the widest circulation. Every word of a forecast of things to come is seized upon with the greatest alacrity, and, if any portion of it turns out to be even partially true, it at once becomes sacred in the eyes of the masses of the people.

One of the most famous prophetic books of the Chinese is a little volume known as the Tui-pei-t'u, or "Chart of Opposing Backs," which is said to have been composed by two celebrated individuals. Yuan Tien-kang and Li Ch'un-feng. who lived during the fifth century A. D.

These two men were reputed to be deeply versed in the secrets of nature which the Chinese call the the "Reasons of the Five Elements and the Masculine and Feminine Principles." CHINESE THEORY:

It is in reality a Chinese theory of the future course of history, and is based upon the hypothesis that "every three hundred years more or less, a small rebellion is to be expected, and every five hundred years, more or less, a great rebellion.". After the latter has subsided, a new government emerges out of the chaos, and the work COMMON OCCURRENCE of tranquillizing the country be-

Unfortunately, however, the language of the book is like that of most oracles (such as those of ancient Greece) composed in such an obscure manner that it may be interpreted to fit any circumstance.

"On November 24 (1938) workmen excavating near the base of the Hsin-jen Bridge at Lu-feng unearthed a remarkable stone about 24 feet in length and 14 feet in breadth upon which were graven the words: Wei-t'len-pei, or 'The Tablet that Responds to Heaven. Further investigation disclosed that the stone bore a prophetic inscription signed by Liu Chi. The inscription was as follows: Hei ch'i-chi, Tsung ch'i-ch'i. Chi-Ning-Yueh-Han. An-mu t'ien-jih. Yin Hu shen ju, Iku chien-mieh. Wu Yueh ying-

JAPANESE THREAT AGAINSI EMPLOYED IN MUNICIPAL SERIOUS DEVELOPMENT

Death To Families If Warning Is Disregarded: Census Taken

TIENTSIN. June 20 (Reuter)-The British Municipal Council is confronted with a most serious situation as the result of the Japanese threat made against employees in the Municipal Service, which has been made not only against the Police, but also the clerical staff, many of whom are now seriously thinking of resigning.

The threats include death to their families as one of the possible consequences of disregarding the warning.

It is learned that the Japanese have taken a census of the members and families of all Municipal employees living in the Japanese-controlled area.

A Kowloon Promenade. There can be few places anywhere where there has been such a complete disregard of any sort of Town Planning (except for Nathan Road which is an admirable piece of work), or such refusal to consider the comfort or convenience of the residents, as Kowloon.

But even now it is not too late to do something when that area has ceased to be a Godown as it is at present. Bridges or Crossings could be erected over the railway and, if necessary, a little more reclamation could take place and a promenade built along by the sea. Such a project, if carried out, would make central Kowloon a very desirable living area.

Early in the session the market was stagnant due to the fac that the London and New York Rubber Exchange were "closed Saturday last as customary during the summer months.

Subsequently, however, fair enquiries for "actuals," received from consuming countries, induced some buying for forward deliveries dealers who appeared to disregard the political tension in the F "East, Whilst prices registered a slight advance of 1/8-cent for all tions. But speculative interest was negligible.

Closing tone was quiet.

Cable-reports from New York disclosed the fact that there as excellent prospects for substantially increased consumption of Spong Rubber by the Automobile Industry in the not too distant future which is generally regarded as a very bullish factor.

strong, and with new speculative buying and "bear" covering progress, prices advanced from their lowest levels at the opening The strength of the "spots" and the firmness of the Southern mark ket were additional aiding factors. The volume was small and price movements were within a narrow range.

Though conditions were quiet, the underlying trend of the mark ket had somewhat improved. An initial buoyancy was in evidence with a subsequent advance in prices. Some small gains were noted

SHANGHAIS TRADE IMPROVES

SHANGHAL, June 20 (T/Ocean) -The position of Shanghai with regard to the Chinese trade finance was reviewed by the fmancial editor of the "Sin Wan Pao" on Monday, Who declares that again a considerable proportion of Chinese capital had flown into Shanghai

Formerly Shanghai had always been the financial centre of China but shortly after the outbreak of the hostilities much capital has been transferred into the interior of the country. Now, however funds accumulated once more Shanghai to such an extent that the Chinese banks are unable to find profitable investments for the deposits.

New Markets

All banks are therefore, trying to find new markets and a group of twelve banks including four biggest banks of the opened branch offices in Kuntaing in the endeavour to develop the business of the south-western provinces.

in this connection, the writer recalls the Government regulations with regard to transfer of money which partly has been devised to relieve the congestion of Shanghai, but which partly, on the other hand, was responsible for its

Thus, it is forbidden to transfer more than 100 dollars at a time from the interior country Shanghal but on the other hand, t is also forbidden to transfer more than 500 dollars from Shanghai into the interior without a special permit.

SHANGHAI'S TRADE IMPROVES

SHANGHAI, June 20 (T/Ocean) -The position of Shinghal with regard to the Chinese trade finance was reviewed by the financial editor of the "Sin Wan Pao" on Monday, Who diciares that again a considerable proportion of Chinese capital had flown into Shanghai

Formerly Shanghai had always been the financial centre of China but shortly after the outbreak of the hostilities much capital has been transferred into the interior of the country. Now, however, funds accumulated orice more in Shanghai to such an extent that the Chinese banks are unable to find profitable investments for the deposits.

New Markets

All banks are then fore, trying to find new markets and a group of twelve banks, including the four biggest banks of the city, opened branch offices in Kunming in the endeavour to develop the business of the south-western provinces,

In this connection, the writer recalls the Government regulations with regard to transfer of money which partly has been devised to relieve the congestion of Shanghai, but which partly, on the other hand, was responsible for it.

"Thus, it is forbidden to transfer more than 100 dollars at a time from the interior country to Shanghai but, on the other hand, it is also forbidden to transfer more than 500 dollars from Shanghai into the interior without a special permit.
